

LODGE UNITED SERVICE

No. 2735 E.C. 58649

BANGALORE.

BY-LAWS

INTRODUCTION

As Society cannot subsist without its essential Laws, Orders and Constitutions, the chief care of every Member should be to promote its harmony and impli obedience to the same, laying aside all pique and prejudice, and endeavouring by his Orderly Demeanor to gain the esteem of his Brethren, being cautious of offending by any contempt, disrespect, or neglect.

As by the Laws of our Ancient Institution, sordid or lucrative views should ever prevail on us to admit to a knowledge of our mysteries, to the unworthy, profane and contentious, it therefore behoves every member of the order to demonstrate by his behavior that he comes not under either of these descriptions but is deserving the honour of being admitted a Member of our Venerable Fraternity.

And in order that the reputation and happiness of the Craft may not suffer by the admission of persons unfit to become Members thereof, whereby many of more worthy Members might be debarred from associating with their Brethren at their stated Meetings, it is enforced that every Brother who is desirous of proposing an individual for admission, shall be particularly careful in ascertaining that he is in all respects a person to become a member of so laudable Society, one whose temper and disposition may contribute to cement the harmony of the Lodge and whose conduct and circumstances in life are such as may not tend to diminish its character and respectability.

But it is necessary at all times to remember that laws without observance rather diminish than add to the objects intended. The officers of the Lodge must therefore be treated with that deference and respect which the offices demand—it being through them alone that order and propriety can be maintained. Such honourable situations ought to be filled by those Brethren only who are desirous of promoting the general good.

NOTE:—Should there be any objection to the introduction of a Candidate for Initiation, or a Brother for Joining, it is recommended that such objection be mentioned privately to the Master or Secretary, who may communicate with the proposer and give him the opportunity of withdrawing his Candidate.
