Dear Bro. J. Saiprasad,
Fraternal Greetings.

It is found from our records that your subscription stands due for the following year:

2016-17 Rs. 3000/-

As per our Lodge bye laws and also as per Rule 124 of the Book of Constitutions it is provided that should the subscription of any member remain unpaid for one full year at the expiration of the period he shall cease to be a member.

Even though this rule when applied affects your membership we have still not taken any steps in this direction in order that our fraternal relationship continues.

Having said that we are under strict direction of the Grand Lodge to take action on such of those members who are in arrears on the count of subscription.

We therefore make our appeal to you to kindly remit the outstanding subscription dues immediately.

The Cheques/ Demand Drafts for the same is to be drawn in favour of "THE MOUNT LODGE GENERAL FUND" and forwarded to the undersigned. In the alternate the same may be remitted with the Karur Vysya Bank, the details are given below :

NEFT Details : 'The Mount Lodge General Fund', KARUR VYSYA BANK T NAGAR Branch, CA Account : 1213115000020541 , IFSC KVBL0001213.

Finally we wish to state that after receipt of this communication if WE DO NOT receive the subscription amount before 15th December, 2017 we will have no recourse than to necessarily put you on CESSATION under advice to the Regional Grand Lodge of Southern India as well as the Grand Lodge of India. Once the member is sent on cessation he automatically ceases to be a member of all other Craft Lodges in which he is a subscribing member.

It is therefore humbly requested that his Letter is treated as FINAL REMINDER and the subscription dues may be paid immediately on receipt of this intimation to avoid Cessation

Yours faithfully & fraternally,

*Sai - Venkatesh V
