Dear Sir & Bro.,

It is noticed from the Mark Lodge Books of Accounts that you are in arrears of subscription and other dues for a period in excess of one year. An amount of Rs. 4,500.00 (Rupees Four Thousand Five Hundred only) is outstanding in your accounts. Your attention is drawn to By Law 2 b of the lodge bylaws read with Rule 110 of The Book of Constitutions which reads as follows:

"2b) A member in debt to the Mark Lodge to the extent of 12 months subscription is liable to be excluded after due notice in accordance with Rule 110 of the Book of Constitution.

110. If the subscription of a member to his daughter Mark Lodge remains unpaid for full two years, at the expiration of that period he shall cease to be a member of the Lodge and the fact, shall be reported to the Lodge at its next regular meeting and recorded in the minutes. He can become a member again only by payment of the arrears followed by regular proposition and ballot according to Rule 100.

This Rule shall not prevent any daughter Mark Lodge proceeding against any of its members under Rule 109 in respect of sums due for a shorter period than two years, if so provided in its by-laws.

You are requested to clear the arrears forthwith to avoid the application of cessation, if your payment has crossed this letter in transit, kindly ignore the same.
